Selectmen's Meeting

RESCUE SQUAD DISGRUNTLED

A majority of Rescue Squad members and supporters met with the Mattapoisett Selectmen and Police Chief Duane Tuttle to air a problem which Rescue Squad spokesman Walter Morgado says threatens the existence of his group. The Rescue Squad wants a literal adherence to a 1975 agreement which established a procedure to call out the Rescue Squad to respond to all accidents between the hours of 4 p.m. and 8 a.m.

Police Chief Tuttle in responding to the Rescue Squad claim of non-compliance to this procedure stated that he had changed the policy over the year to a judgment call after determining the type of accident. The Chief said that he has the highest regard for the Rescue Squad which has given professional and valuable service since its start. The Chief said that many accidents which appear on the police blotter do not require the response of anyone. He stated that in the total of 44 accidents since January some motorists drove to the station after the accident to report it. Many were minor mishaps such as parking lot accidents, 5 hit trees or sign posts, 6 were hit and run and reported after the fact, some cars just went off the road with no impact. The Chief said that it would entail danger to call out the rescue squad to respond to every accident before it was determined if an emergency existed.

He said even one police car responding at high speed posed a danger to vehicles and pedestrians in the path of the cruiser. Because of this he felt an evaluation should be made by the responder to determine if the Rescue Squad was needed. He said that when it is needed it is called. The Chief said that one cruiser investigating an accident ties up 100 feet of highway. The Rescue Squad truck with 2 or 3 private cars of members can tie up 500 feet of highway.

Mr. Tuttle asked Mr. Morgado if he felt that it was necessary to call out the Rescue Squad for every minor accident. Morgado replied, "Yes, we do". He said that many times the cruiser is called away, leaving the Rescue Squad to clean up. According to members of the squad it is better for the Squad to go to all accidents and if it is found that they aren't needed they can go home. They said that the police can't determine the extent of an accident by talking to someone on the phone. Some people are calm about a major accident and some are excited about a minor fender bender, they said, so it is better to respond and determine on the scene what is needed.

The Selectmen said that the only thing really sure was that a communication problem existed in the public safety sector. They suggested a 2-week period to evalu-

In the interim, the Selectmen voted a motion to reaffirm the 1975 policy to call the Rescue Squad on every accident. The vote was amended to read that Rescue Squad response should be made by the truck and only one private vehicle.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

A nine article warrant has been set up for action of the Special Town Meeting which will be held June 30 at 7 p.m. at Old Rochester Regional High School.

Article 1 will ask for $500 from free cash to pay for repairs to a cruiser damaged between the time it was traded and the time it was delivered to the dealer.

Article 2 will ask for $6,518 from free cash to make up the difference between what was appropriated at the annual town meeting for Chapter 90, Brandt Island Road work and the amount actually needed. $11,000 was appropriated by the town but the State sees $17,500 as a more realistic figure.

Article 3 is two articles concerning Good-speed Island.

A) Seeks reversal of a vote of the annual town meeting to allow Selectmen to negotiate an easement over the sewer right-of-way.

Meet Harry and Sarah and share "The Little Things You do Together" to make a marriage a joy, inducing continual baiting and karate. Karate?

Jenny and David experiment with grass when Bobby visits and a riotous time ensues. But is it really fun?

Susan and David are the happiest, perfect couple. He is charming and attentive. She is gracious and adoring. The reason they are particularly happy tonight is their delightfully mutual decision to divorce.

Robert joins Amy and Paul on their wedding day. A beautiful day. Except for a single flaw. The bride is crazed and swears that she is "Not getting Married Today". Will she?

Then there is Joanne who is on her third marriage to...what's his name. She forgot again? Actually Joanne is warm and living. Just ask Larry. Is that his name?
